Pat Miller has been training dogs for more than 35 years and we are thrilled to host her at the Humane Society of Indianapolis! In childhood she trained the family Collie for 4-H competition. Her professional life has always revolved around animals, first as a hunter-jumper (horse) trainer in Wisconsin, then for 20 years as a humane officer at the Marin, CA Humane Society. During those years she also trained with nationally acclaimed obedience instructor Judie Howard.

Pat started her Peaceable Paws dog training and behavior center in Monterey-Santa Cruz in 1996 and moved it to Tennessee in 2000, where she also launched the Peaceable Paws trainer academies. The center moved to an 80-acre campus in Fairplay, MD in 2004 and added Reactive Rover and Shaping Camps. In 2001, Pat was one of the first 136 trainers to receive a CPDT (Certified Pet Dog Trainer) title from the CCPDT, and was awarded the CDBC (Certified Dog Behavior Consultant) title from the IIABC in 2004. She is also past president of the APDT.

Pat presents seminars internationally, is training editor for the "Whole Dog Journal" and regularly contributes to that publication as well as "Bark" magazine, "Popular Dogs" and Tufts University's "Your Dog". Her first book, "The Power of Positive Dog Training" was released by Howell Books in August 2001. Dogwise Publishing released her "Positive Perspectives" in 2004, and a follow-up volume "Positive Perspectives 2" in January 2008. Pat's website for Peaceable Paws LLC is www.peaceablepaws.com.
